

RULES WHEN DEALING WITH MEMORABILIA

Keep what brings you happiness and you will enjoy returning to

Not everyone will want the things you inherited - it's ok to donate them

Have a place to display and enjoy your keepsakes

Weed out your memorabilia vigorously and regularly

Contain your treasures in quality storage boxes and only store if you have adequate space

Make digital copies of your favorite photos; they will be handy at your memorial

Box photos in photo boxes by year or decade

Hand off memorabilia when your kids have homes of their own

Your memories are not theirs. Accept that others may not want to keep what you do.
